

Barber, Joseph C
Sept. 25, 1942

Joseph C. Barber, 72 years old, the father of W. W. Barber, who is manager of the Dantzler Lumber Company in Moss Point, died Sunday night at ten o'clock at the King's Daughters Hospital in Gulfport.

Funeral services were conducted Tuesday at 5 p. m. at Riemann's Chapel with the Rev. C. C. Clark officiating. Interment was in Evergreen Cemetery.

Mr. Barber was born in Hickory, Miss., May 12, 1870, but he was a pioneer resident of Gulfport. He was formerly in the clothing business and operated the Men's Furnishing Store for about 15 years. He retired from active business ten years ago.

In addition to his son in Moss Point, he is survived by four sons, A. B. Barber, New Orleans; J. C. Barber, Jr., Greenville, S. C.; J. M. Barber, Gulfport; and L. B. Barber, Fort Myers, Florida; and four daughters, Mrs. Sid Smith, Bonham, Texas; Mrs. Roy D. Holland, Atlanta, Ga.; Mrs. J. M. Lemeux, Long Beach; and Mrs. J. M. Valentour, Jackson.

Sept. 25, 1942

BARBER, JOSEPH C

J. C. Barber, 72, Dies At Gulfport Hospital Sunday

BARBER, J.C.

Joseph C. Barber, 72 years old, the father of W. W. Barber, who is manager of the Dantzler Lumber Company in Moss Point, died Sunday night at ten o'clock at the King's Daughters Hospital in Gulfport.

Funeral services were conducted Tuesday at 5 p. m. at Riemann's Chapel with the Rev. C. C. Clark officiating. Interment was in Evergreen Cemetery.

Mr. Barber was born in Hickory, Miss., May 12, 1870, but he was a pioneer resident of Gulfport. He was formerly in the clothing business and operated the Men's Furnishing Store for about 15 years. He retired from active business ten years ago.

OVER

In addition to his son in Moss Point, he is survived by four sons, A. B. Barber, New Orleans; J. C. Barber, Jr., Greenville, S. C.; J. M. Barber, Gulfport; and L. B. Barber, Fort Myers, Florida; and four daughters, Mrs. Sid Smith, Bonham, Texas; Mrs. Roy D. Holland, Atlanta, Ga.; Mrs. J. M. Lemeux, Long Beach; and Mrs. J. M. Valentour, Jackson.